a Muslim saint or holy man.

passive infrared (denoting a type of sensor).

EXAMPLE

People go to the mosque to pray and light candles and also visit the tombs of 'pir' (holy men) to make a wish.

Built in 1650, it is attributed to a 'pir' named Abdul Karim, who was more popularly known as Sheikh Chehli among the local inhabitants.

They believe that the 'pir' 's gravesite is full of blessings, and they attend at shrines to pray to God for favors.

He is running from Hala in Sindh, and since he is the 'pir' or saint of Hala, he will certainly win his seat.

Almost all cultures that have benevolent images of magic-workers - shamans, healers, 'pirs', saints - also have malevolent ones.
