Over the past several years, the Internet has become fertile ground for the discussion, creation, and evolution of various "alternative points of view," more popularly known as "conspiracy theories." The combination of near-zero cost-of-entry required to build an opinionated website with the high availability of collaborative discussion forums have created what some call a renaissance for conspiracy theorists. Ranging from ludicrous and uninformed flights of fancy to thought-provoking essays of brilliant research, the sheer volume of online conspiracy "chatter" is a testament to the incredible number of people who are dissatisfied with the "official" answers to provocative questions.

With over three-million visits a month from those dissatisfied answer-seekers, AboveTopSecret.com has emerged as the largest and most popular web site where conspiracy theories of all kinds are created, examined, debunked, filtered, and matured. We turned to our members and visitors to review all of history’s conspiracies, compared with contemporary conspiracies, and created a top-ten list of their most important conspiracy theories. Some of the topics in the list will be as familiar as an old friend, others will be a surprise, and one or two are completely unexpected. After 159,620 votes on 53,195 completed ballots from 29,112 people during a six-day period, here are the top-ten most important conspiracies:

The United States Shadow Government

2.60% of all votes

A little-publicised executive order during the Reagan administration created the National Program Office which established a secret national security team outside the traditional branches of the government. This new agency with a reported multi-billion dollar budget was headed up by covert operations loyalist Oliver North, and included then Vice-President George Bush (Sr.), Dick Cheney, and Donald Rumsfeld (who was not part of the administration at the time). Long time conspiracy theorists were ultimately not surprised to see key members of this secret national security agency placed in prominent administration positions, and at key “action stations,” at the time of the attacks on September 11, 2001.

Soon after the 9/11 attacks, this office was given a degree of legitimacy by the Bush (Jr.) administration and known more broadly as Project 908 or “Continuity Of Government” (COG). Because of their involvement in national security issues, even when not officially in any administration agency, the NPO and later COG has been the target of a great deal of conspiracy speculation ranging from off-the-books covert activity to having total control of the executive branch of the U.S. government.

Controlling Hearts & Minds Through Organized Religion

2.90% of all votes

In the Book of Matthew, Jesus lays out specific instructions, "thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men." This instruction of simple and private spirituality is reflected in the writings of many faiths, but ignored by organized religion.

Martin Luther in the 16th century, with his Ninety-Five Theses, may have been the first well-documented conspiracy theory author. The Christian Reform Movement began from concern over widespread commercial corruption in the Catholic Church. Many in the reformation were burned at the stake for being heretics, but in reality, were initially simply seeking to guide the church back toward the tenets of simple spirituality taught by Jesus.

To this day, the mechanisms used by major organized religions to influence the hearts and minds of followers are a far cry from the teachings that first spawned the faiths. From the suppression of science to the obfuscation of human nature, the attempt to control the actions of the populace have been well-discussed in conspiracy theory circles for centuries.

The Suppression of Alternative And Free Energy Sources

2.99% of all votes

One need only look at the debacle of the EV-1 Electric Car, and how the oil industry and big-auto (at the time) colluded with the government to kill a superior product to understand how similar alternative energy products and ideas have been systematically buried or outright killed. The ruthless oil industry, with government cooperation and sometimes active participation, has been the biggest barrier to the development of alternative energy sources, technologies, and ideas.

Even the father of our technological age, Nikola Tesla, the inventor of alternating current and much more, encountered stiff opposition and suppression of his experiments (which now appear to have been very successful) into "Zero Point Energy," or "free" energy extracted from... the fabric of the universe.

And today, given the maturity of known alternative energy technologies, it shouldn't be difficult for the average household to establish nearly complete energy self-sufficiency. However, the barriers in both cost (through suppression efforts) and legal requirements (through government collusion with big-oil) make it nearly impossible.

A Significant Global Catastrophe Will Happen In December, 2012
3.55% of all votes

The ancient Mayans possessed a sophisticated culture with a unique perception of the universe and the role of the planets in cosmic events. Scholars studying the Mayans have found startling accuracy within the Mayan Calendar as it tracked days and weeks in comparison with astronomical data and events, and which is more precise than the Julian calendar. But the disconcerting discovery is that this highly accurate and painstakingly prepared calendar of cosmic events has an end date of 2012, beyond which no data exists.

According to a growing number of people researching this particular phenomenon of the calendar agree that "something significant" will happen on the end-date. Opinions range from a simple "cycle back to the beginning and start over," to a cosmic catastrophe that will end all life on earth. And as more information becomes apparent, many now believe that "the government" is fully aware of what will happen and is very carefully suppressing the truth. One tantalizing glimpse of this potential foreknowledge lies in the manner in which the "Y2K Bug" was repaired in many mainframe computers -- the problem was simply pushed forward to, you guessed it, 2012.

The Cover-Up Of Alien Technology Research at Area 51

3.56% of all votes

Few government installations inspire more speculation and flights of fancy than the most public of secret government facilities, Area 51 in Groom Lake, Nevada. Known to be the testing facility for the ultra-secret "Skunk Works" projects that gave birth to advanced technologies such as the stealth aircraft, this highly-guarded location is the stuff of conspiracy legend.

Believed to be the final destination of the debris recovered from an alien space craft that crash-landed in Roswell, New Mexico, many feel the installation has been the epicenter of projects that reverse-engineer captured extraterrestrial technology.

Those who watch and track what appear to be government tests into highly-advanced technologies believe most of the activity at Area 51 has been moved to other locations. However, occasional hints and tidbits of information indicate there still may be significant efforts including the continuation of highly advanced research, possibly with the aid of actual extraterrestrial entities.

The Collapse of the Global Economy Was A Controlled Demolition

3.88% of all votes

While this may, justifiably, be a sub-set of the conspiracy theory coming... in at number-one, the contemporary nature, and real emotional and economic pain being felt by the average person, makes this worthy of a position in the middle of our top-ten. Taking a cue from terminology often used in our number-three conspiracy, the "controlled demolition" refers to the decades-long plan to destroy the collective wealth of the average person.

In the first half of the previous century, people's financial savings were almost exclusively tied up in bank savings, pensions, and personal real estate (homes). Since those three simple vehicles for building or sustaining personal prosperity were not easily controlled or manipulated by the "powers that be," new methods were required to shift the finances from those relatively static, uncontrollable sources, to a more fluid and easily manipulated destination, the stock market. As a result, the government created and promoted several methods of "saving for retirement" that were tied to equity markets. Over time, an epic shift of wealth storage occurred that gave rise to huge global "investment banks" and drove equities indexes to unthinkable highs.

But savings was only part of the plan. The "powers that be" needed access to the equity in homes. So the shift in wealth storage soon focused on personal real estate. Unconventional mortgages were devised and sold at a dizzying pace to unqualified buyers. In order to fund highly exotic and risky mortgage-backed securities, both conventional and unconventional mortgages were pushed in a frenetic sales effort. The public was encouraged to use the equity in their personal real estate as credit for a massive consumer culture through home equity lines of credit, which were also folded into the exotic securities. With these strategies, the final component of the wealth storage shift was complete -- nearly every mortgage was tied to impossibly complex and highly-leveraged investment products designed to bring about catastrophe.

Now that the collective wealth of the average person had been transitioned to easily manipulated equity markets, the stage was set. Those few who devised this decades-long plan reaped the financial rewards as the "bombs" were detonated and the economy collapsed inward, resulting in the hard-earned savings of millions of people very-nearly vanishing in mere months, and the values of their homes crashing so hard it created millions of people with negative equity. The populace was successfully stripped of their wealth.

The Assassination of John F. Kennedy

6.10% of all votes

Many consider the assassination of JFK as a pivotal event that was the catalyst for evolving the culture of the United States from one of optimism to that of skepticism. It's a defining moment as arguably the first time where major segments of the population found reason to reject the "official story." From that moment on, distrust in the government began to fester with measurable impact, and the popularization of the term "conspiracy theorist" began to take root.

With the possible exception of our number-two conspiracy, the JFK assassination is perhaps the most discussed and most widely-accepted conspiracy theory. The notion that factions within the government planned the murder of the president finds itself deeply entrenched within the culture through countless books, television shows, broadcast and cable specials, and feature movies.

While potentially massive in scope, this theory has not achieved the closure of lessor-scale proven conspiracies such as Iran Contra, Watergate, and the FBI involvement in LA gang wars (to name a few). Many believe this is because the event occurred prior to the eventual skeptical-of-government environment that later ensued, which made exposure of subsequent conspiracies more likely. Before the assassination, we generally didn't want to consider our government would lie to us, now, it's a generally accepted fact of life.

The Attacks on September 11, 2001

14.26% of all votes

If we had performed this survey three years ago, this conspiracy theory may have come in at the number-one spot. This is not to say there is a diminished amount of speculation about various levels of government involvement, but that a layer of fatigue has found its way into traditional conspiracy theory circles.

The basic premise behind 9/11-related conspiracy theories are relatively simple: elements within the United States government either made possible the events of the day, or turned a blind eye so as to allow the attacks to happen unhindered. The core notion is very similar to the conspiracy theories surrounding the attacks on Pearl Harbor. But compounding these theories are two disturbing items: 1) The discovery of Project Northwoods which was a 1962 Joint Chiefs of Staff plan to inflict civilian casualties with hijacked aircraft as a pretext to invade Cuba, and 2) Conspiracy theory "chatter" during the spring of 2001 that a "false flag" terrorist attack on American soil was imminent. When conspiracy theorists discover alarming coincidences that include key "Shadow Government" members at action stations the morning of 9/11, previous plans drafted by the government to do exactly what happened on 9/11, and growing rumors of a terrorist attack that will be used as a pretext for war, the speculation begins in earnest.

Now, some eight years later, it's nearly impossible to perform an Internet search on the topic of the 9/11 attacks and find material that is not related to one or more conspiracy theories. And while the event has sparked a type of online resurgence for conspiracy theorists, in many ways, the Internet chatter has also contributed to the lack of mainstream adoption of this particular conspiracy. A multitude of websites and Internet forum postings promote a dizzying array of wildly speculative theories that range from holographic projections and nuclear devices to total and complete fabrication of the event through Hollywood-style special effects, and so much more. Many who follow the traditional conspiracy theorist path of sober analysis and relentless research feel that some, if not many of the popularized but wild Internet theories are distractions designed to obfuscate and hide the truth in plain sight.

Indeed, those concerned about a "conspiracy within a conspiracy" need only look at the dozens (if not hundreds) of factions owing allegiance of sorts to the larger "9/11 Truth" campaign. Most of these smaller groups have been engaged in various levels of "one-upsmanship" as ever more speculative theories are aggressively promoted so as to attract attention away from competing groups. The result is an impossible to discern cacophony of competing theories, confusing or conflicting objectives, and ultimate frustration for both those involved and those seeking to learn. It doesn't matter that the confusing mix of theories is by accident or design, the traditional conspiracy theorist will comment that there is no such thing as a coincidence, and that everything happens for a reason.

The Cover-Up of Extraterrestrial Visitation and Their Space Craft

19.28% of combined votes

Coming in number two, we actually decided to combine the votes on two similar categories "Extraterrestrial Cover-up" and "Cover-ups related to UFO sightings." While conspiracy theory purists will be quick to point out that there are quantifiable differences between the cover-up of extraterrestrials and those of "unidentified flying objects" (especially when considering many UFOs may be secret government projects), there's enough crossover to combine the two.

Many respected scientists, politicians, and journalists have become convinced of compelling evidence that not only have we been visited by extraterrestrial beings, our government is actively pursuing collaborative projects in exchange for access to advanced technology. Several declassified government documents provide tantalizing clues of active programs designed to retrieve fallen alien space craft, research into extraterrestrial technologies, and cover-stories for various sightings of aerial craft of fantastic operation.

And the recent widely reported sighting at the Chicago O'Hare airport illustrates the lengths at which the government will seek to cover-up or dispel unexplained sightings of incredible aircraft. While many people, including pilots and tower personnel, saw an airborne object behaving in an extraordinary way in secure airspace at the nation's largest airport, the FAA, airlines, and official government sources did their best to deny any such thing happened.

But unlike many other conspiracy theory categories, it should be noted that this one is riddled with outright hoaxes fake footage of aliens and flying saucers. In most cases, the hoaxed images are nothing more than someone attempting to draw attention to their digital video special effects prowess. In some cases, the hoaxes turn out to be various "camps" of UFO aficionados playing tricks on each other. But in a few cases, the false leads and misdirections of popularized hoaxes have been manufactured by covert government agencies as a means to track the progression of an online meme within the relatively small circle of people engaged in researching the conspiracies.

To many, the mystery has been solved, we are not alone. But until the government finally "discloses" its awareness and involvement, extraterrestrials and UFOs will remain a high-interest conspiracy theory category.

The Secret Cabals Working Toward a Global One-World Government

22.07% of all combined votes

And now, here we are at the number-one conspiracy theory as voted by the members and visitors of AboveTopSecret.com. Combining three very-similar vote categories; "Conspiracies related to the global banking elite," "Bilderberg, Illuminati, CFR, PNAC, etc," and "New World Order & One World Government," we have what is essentially the grand unification conspiracy theory (even before combining the votes, the NWO vote category was in first place).

In many ways, this is the core concept from which many other conspiracy theories spring forth. The "New World Order" is the fabled end-game for the power-hungry global elite that many believe are behind the events that have shaped history and current events. The core theory speculates that long-standing bloodlines and banking families have entered secret arrangements to consolidate power and influence via a global one-world government. The secret societies such as the Bilderbergs and Illuminati (and to some extent elite Free Masons) are at the core of the theory. Suspected members of these groups are associated with major international banks, the Project for the New American Century, the Council on Foreign Relations, and the Trilateral Commission.

The people speculated to be at the center of this particular conspiracy comprise a short-list of less than 3,000 of the who's-who in international politics, industry, and finance. Led by the select few who represent multi-generational family involvement for whom power consolidation has replaced wealth accumulation, the goal is global amalgamation in the form of a tightly controlled police mega-state.
Contemporary events, such as the controlled demolition of the economy and purposely failed U.S. foreign policy are seen as the latest necessary steps toward the inevitable global police state. Even elements of the UFO and ET technology cover-ups can be traced back to this unification conspiracy theory as the power elite use all tools at their disposal to refine the technologies needed to control a global population. In one way or another, according to traditional conspiracy theorists, all lesser conspiracies are traced back to this singular but complex theory that is to conspiracies what string theory is to physics.

Survey Methodology

Members of AboveTopSecret.com were given a week to discuss what they believe are their most important or compelling conspiracy theories. Each member submitted at least three suggested theories for a total of over 200 distinct conspiracies submitted. The master list was condensed and reviewed, with a final master-list of 35 conspiracy theories.

The final list of 35 theories was packed into a Flash-drive web-based voting system that allowed anyone to select their top-three most important theories. All users were allowed to vote once per 24 hours, resulting in 29,112 unique respondents with a total of 53,195 completed ballots... or 159,620 actual votes.

The final votes were weighted as follows:
A vote in the first position, or most-important theory, counted for a value of 1.2.
A vote in the second position, or second-most-important theory, counted for a value of 1.0.
A vote in the third position, or third-most-important theory, counted for a value of 0.8.

The total vote-values for each conspiracy theory in the poll were tabulated and used to determine the top-10 conspiracy theories which represent 81.12% of all votes.

I'm just disappointed that it is in the top-ten because I still think that there is very little evidence to back it up compared to the other conspiracies.

Its no big deal really but I just think some other theories were more deserving of a top-ten spot.

I would think No7 has very little scientific evidence concerning the Earth tumbling speculation....

I think that given the circumstances the list is quite representative, and agree to the trend of No1 against No2.

Alltogether this is an excellent concept and I think it should be carried out in a yearly basis to maximise its potential.

BIG Bravo to ATS!

An interesting survey. A mix of older, evergreen conspiracies and the latest rage. I selected conspiracies that would affect the course of human history and didn't consider 911 or 2012 to have much import. That said, it looks like #'s 1 and 2 fit the bill.

Great list, however I can't believe that the whole 2012 thing made the top 10. Then again, just because it's not my cup of tea doesn't mean others can't buy into it.

A good Top 10 - not exactly what I chose - and I think two alien categories is a little redundant (although I understand they are two aspects of it) - and I think the Shdaow Govt. and Economic Collapse could fit nicely under the NWO topic...

And honesty 7 and 9 just make me a little sad - but at least there is no Reptillian or Habitable Moon ones...

(Although I do believe the Moon seriously should have been one on the list - although I do believe we went there)

But like others have said - at least we know what's on people's minds.

I had actually not put "alternative energies" on my original list - because I thought it perhaps too broad - but now that I see it - I think it is good that it made the list.

We cannot be 100% sure on that No7 is complete fantasy given we have No1...
Today we live in an environment of information overload and reality is sometime difficult to discern. I think ATS is the best place around to gather and discuss on such matters since everybody gets to have a word, from the unknowing but observant to the specialist with limited time to spare.

A conspiracy making it in the list is not necessarily true neither the most importand but certainly widely discussed. No7 probaly is here due to time constraints and if there is anything vastly interesting about it in real life implications we would hear soon about it.
The responders to the poll are spot on with the NWO conspiracy, which continues today with the calls for the Global Currency being considered by the Treasury Secretary.

The NWO conspiracy is number one because the other nine conspiracies listed are all related to the NWO; they are simply facets of an overarching agenda.

The three I chose got combined for #1: New World Order & One World Government; Bilderberg, Illuminati, CFR, PNAC, etc.; and Conspiracies related to the global banking elite.
I think this list is accurate except for #10. The shadow government does sort of tie in with "Bilderberg, Illuminati, CFR, PNAC, etc.". It could have been combined with #1. I think HAARP or MKULTRA would have been a better one for #10. I know it's based on votes, but still.

Overall a good list.

I didn’t. And I’m not shocked it wasn’t. The 9/11 debate has been beaten to death and become so twisted and blurred by people trying to further their own agenda that it is exhausting trying to find the truth. Maybe that was intentional?

The cover-up of 9/11 has almost become as big of a conspiracy as the actual event. There are so many disinformation agents on the Internet to cloud the discussion that it has almost become impossible to find any credible information.

Looking at the raw data, I notice that if the three NWO and two UFO categories hadn’t been combined, 9/11 would be number one by a pretty unbeatable margin.

I must say I’m rather relieved that chemtrails and moon landing coverups didn’t make the top ten.

But I tell you, there really is something in all that talk about the strange designs at Denver Airport...

Nicely done. I am surprised sop many thought 2012 is not based on anything but fantasy. I bet they are confused and think its about Niberu or Stitchen.

Those that do not understand may not be part of the spiritual awakening.

Most that are waking up feel the quickening. This is what 2012 is actually about is the quickening as of right now we are in rapid polarization and TPTB are confusing the matter with dooms day prophesy. Its all about the completion of the great cycle and how our solar system is now rounding the far side of its elliptical orbit and is now going back towards the galaxy center instead of away from it.

The end of the old world ways and the beginning of the new. The NWO, war on terror, the crashing of the economy are all to divert the mind of the masses away from this and most are buying it cheap.

Anyway great list.

Very interesting and some surprises in it. I was surprised at 7 too, due to not really feeling it is a conspiracy, but the unknown, and as we get closer and closer the media will have to talk about it.

I wish I would have remembered to vote more during it, only voted twice.

Thanks for putting this all together.

Actually, HAARP falls into number 8 on the list. Tesla Invention,(under Eastland patents)

Fantastic top 10. Now, I will have to join this Digg thing that I have been avoiding for a year.

Great speed with the collation SO. errrr I mean...Dude.

Nice work - very well composed and presented.

Most of my favorites are there, but whether any are or not doesn't matter. What does matter is that we are hearing the collective voice of our peers and contemporaries.

Thanks, ATS. I'm proud to call this forum, "Home"...

This is the penultimate expression of those who seek that which is not easily found in our "traditional media outlets"... The TRUTH, or, at least the questions that could lead one to get closer to it.

We were a bit surprised as we collated the data (votes) too. Naturally being a UFO enthusiast myself I figured the top spot would have gone to the UFO phenomenon.

I have to agree with those who believe the revelations of corruption and idiocy that led to the current, horrid and "no end in sight yet" economic melt down we are all enduring right now is most likely the reason the "NWO" took the top position.

Excellent stuff no matter how you slice it. ☺

This link was in the OP of this thread, but I blew by it at first, but this thread is worth visiting too.
Can't believe the Nazi technology didn't get in the top ten.
Nor did ancient technology supression.
ho hum...

My personal favourite at the moment came in at No.5
If things are as bad as some of the economists make out, then - assuming we can all still afford internet in a couple of years - should the poll be run again I'd wager it would be No.1
But any way you slice it up, thats quite some list isn't it? And its nice to see a different spin on the subjects than the crap you get in the MSM - I've seen lists like this on different mainstream sites and they are all kooky and rip the subject matters - its just good to see them all taken seriously with a more objective view.
Kudos to us all for sticking with these, and always wanting to find out more

Excellent, no matter where chosen favourites come in this top ten, it is still an impressive list, and a good indication as to what people are worried and thinking about here on this site.
I don't go much for the 2012 scenario's to many opinions and not enough evidence, however it has some worried, and that's enough for me to want to know why and if.
The list is how it is, and that makes me happy, would have made me happy anyway it came out to be honest.
All I seek is truth, honesty, freedom, and justice for all.

It really is excellent no matter how you slice it. It doesnt matter where your conspiracy lies as long as we hunt for the truth.
Did I read somewhere once it will set you free?

I wanted to add, why is Bill's mood madness are peeps on ATS driving him nuts?

Great list people

The only thing's that surprise me is that the shadow government placed so low and that the JFK assassination placed so high or even on the list. We haven't found out the truth in 46 years, i doubt we ever will. It's a dead subject.

No pun intended.

Well perhaps its because mainstream media is also looking at it closely, not to mention the Movie that is coming out on that subject. You think its #7 now wait till its at the theaters...

Here is an article from New Scientist magazine...

Space storm alert: 90 seconds from catastrophe

Caption

A fierce solar storm could lead to a global disaster on an unprecedented scale

(Images: SOHO Consortium / ESA / NASA)

T IS midnight on 22 September 2012 and the skies above Manhattan are filled with a flickering curtain of colourful light. Few New Yorkers have seen the aurora this far south but their fascination is short-lived. Within a few seconds, electric bulbs dim and flicker, then become unusually bright for a fleeting moment. Then all the lights in the state go out. Within 90 seconds, the entire eastern half of the US is without power.

A year later and millions of Americans are dead and the nation's infrastructure lies in tatters. The World Bank declares America a developing nation. Europe, Scandinavia, China and Japan are also struggling to recover from the same fateful event - a violent storm, 150 million kilometres away on the surface of the sun.

Now with a publication like New Scientist talking about it and ESA/NASA playing along... maybe there is more to this than they are telling us afterall?

The Top-Ten Conspiracy Theories, page 3
I found the entire list and the lead up to it, giving our top 3 then voting for a top three from the most popular a fantastic idea. I really enjoyed being involved and its very pleasing to no that we were all involved with this. I to will join DIGG to help pass the message on and urge the rest of you to do so as the subjects we are interested in are gradually starting to seep through into the mainstream and public consciousness and anything we can do to further that can only be positive! Also, with subject matter like this getting into the press and mentions on TV more and more, as time goes on we are looking less and less crazy to others and dont have to suppress our opinions for fear of getting carried off to the loony bin or ridiculed. Brilliant idea ATS, keep up the good work. S and F.

No. 7 is not a conspiracy but a fact of near future 😊
Good list good read 🗣

Great list with well-written summaries!

The 2012 bit at number 7 is baffling - isn't that just in the realm of fantasy? Believing that future events are 'known' by some is pretty naive, but feeling that we are not told the truth about current and past events is plain common sense.

Lots of reasons to be suspicious of the Moon Landings, but as it's a matter of national pride you can see why it doesn't rate highly. Not too much real proof there, of course, just a feeling that the technology of the time wasn't even close to being up to the task. Fry me to the moon.

But! Why isn't the 911 fiasco at the very top? The most important conspiracy of them all; find out the real truth behind that and let the revolution begin.

More polls please!
A bit puzzled in the No. 10 conspiracy — I'm not saying there isn't a "shadow government," because there certainly is. But I'm surprised that so many theorists erroneously believe this is a new development, attributing it to the Bush administration. I mean, if the Bush administration proved anything, it was that they couldn't organize the traditional government, nevermind a shadow government.

The shadow government of the USA dates back to the founding of this nation, and many of our most esteemed presidents have acknowledged it — Jefferson, Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt and even Franklin Roosevelt publicly spoke of the existence of sinister and subversive entities actually controlling the fate of our nation. Which is rather ironic, inasmuch as FDR's administration undermined the Constitution, planted the seeds of American socialism, and contributed more power to the shadow government than any other administration in the 20th Century.

Also, I'm not really sure that the shadow government even qualifies as a "conspiracy theory" anymore, for it's not even operating in the shadows these days — over the last 20 years, it has gradually emerged into broad daylight and is now in the process of demolishing and redistributing America's wealth in full view of the world.

kudos ATS for the hard work and well presented poll! thanks for chewing up my future "get stuff done" list, as there is a ton of reading to be had. great work!

I have to admit I was unhappy with the site for a host of reasons (that seem minor now) but I'm in love with it again and this list. I don't personally believe in 2012 but I find it really interesting that so many on ATS do so I'll have to look into it more. Otherwise the list is spot on and many other conspiracies people believe in can be linked to one of the following conspiracies on the list even if it does not directly mention them.

Sometimes I question myself and feel a little insane for being so obsessed with NWO, the Bilderberg Group, and the events that gave us the Patriotic Act, so I'm glad to see so many others also believe something fishy is going on.
If the media at large does not discuss the shadow government and the people generally do not know about it then I think it should still be considered a conspiracy theory. Many people think it started with Bush because the corruption in his administration gained a lot of media attention.

The fact of the matter is that this stuff is still left out of history books. If the history books you grow up with leave this stuff out and the media that surrounds you pretends like it didn't happen then it seems to me that those are things in history the government wants to re-write and forget about, or cover-up- giving us a conspiracy.

wow - i really thought the fluoride conspiracy would have made the list... i consider it almost #1 because it would change the behavior of those who intake fluoride, for the better...

maybe it'd be easier to "wake up" to other conspiracies, and help us to take more action against those that rule us, if fluoride was taken out of our water supply...

maybe next time... 😊

I totally disagree with this list, it is dumb. How can you separate shadow government from NWO, and how do you separate area 51 from the UFO cover up? All those things should be merged. Also, every time I saw a post, it mentioned the moon 'landing', yet not even a hint of it, on here.

i slightly agree, because many things on the list to choose from could have been merged into other categories... like, the international bankers, shadow government, Bilderberg group, and NWO should have all been in the same group...

and again, FLUORIDE DIDN'T EVEN MAKE THE TOP 10!!! 😁😊
For the number two conspiracy, I submit Gazrok’s wonderful work located here.

A great compilation of some of the best UFO cases. And here is the thread with the link to the Stephensville radar report -- radar report.

For the most part, the "US Shadow Government" and the "New World Order" have been relatively distinct concepts only until recently (10-20 years).

The bits-and-pieces discovered about the behind-the-scenes national security maneuverings and influence represented by the US Shadow Government have been mostly directed toward the selfish imperialist goals of the US of the previous century. It hasn't been until the Bush administration (and to some extent the previous Clinton administration) that the speculated activities of the US Shadow Government took on globalist tendencies.

AND HOW DO YOU SEPARATE AREA 51 FROM THE UFO COVER UP?

Given the role of Skunk Works and other advanced technology research at Area 51, it’s clear that extraterrestrial technologies are a sub-set of what is believed to happen at Area 51. There is indeed some crossover, I believe there is more that is different than there is in common.

ALSO, EVERY TIME I SAW A POST, IT MENTIONED THE MOON ‘LANDING’

It was in the final list of 35 conspiracies offered up for voting, but did not make it into the top-10.
I agree that shadow government should have been merged with 'new world order', but that hardly makes this "DUMB".

As for Area 51, it is a military base. It has nothing to do with the UFO cover up. The only link the two have is the link people have created. Personally, I think there is nothing special at Area 51. If there was we wouldn't know the base even exists.

The moon landing isn't very interesting, and I think the votes reflected that. If the landing was faked, technically it is a conspiracy. But there just isn't much that is interesting about it. So they faked a landing on the moon and the wrong country got credit for being the first. That's as deep as the rabbit hole goes with this one, I'm afraid.

This is not some site conspiracy to push the topics we find most interesting or relevant my friend.

These items were voted on by the membership of this site as a whole.

If that many people felt that certain topics should have been merged, or shouldn't have been listed separately, then they shouldn't have voted for them separately.

Just my 2 cents, nothing more.

The collective "Spidee Sense" is something to pay attention to. This might put things into a planetary order of importance where the whole of the human organism is concerned.

In the future we will dissolve nationalism and be a species in contact with itself. The NWO will not work if we stay collectively connected in our group mind-heart-spirit.

Then some day, hopefully within our lifetimes we can have a NHO (New Human Order) where the devisive powers are squelched by the collective mind of heart-connected globally aware and compassionate intelligence we where meant to be.

There will be no reason to trick or force people into the path of the greater collective we are by birthright. It will be everyone's personal decision to be with everyone else. Not with the flesh-chipped, managed, consumerist herds the NWO want us to be.

Now do we see the power of collective mind? ATS might be a perfect example of what we need as a neuron-net for the natural compassionate creative explorers we truly are.

My focus is on #2, but that is me, one cell in the human organism.
Great experiment! Now, how can we use this in our best interest?

Is this the next question to put to the group?

Everybody should Digg this thread. There's 109 flags and 96 stars. We should have more than 28 Diggs. We're on page 29 of the 'Most Diggs'. If we want people to see a real conspiracy theory top-10 list we have to flag it more.

The top Digg right now has 206. We can easily pass that.

115 Flags and only 30 Diggs?

Come on now! Everyone who flags should also be digging!
Again, the Bush administration had little or nothing to do with the expansion of the shadow government and the New World Order. In my own view, the Bush administration was an ineffectual "front" designed to absorb the misdirected heat of an increasingly frustrated public, while the U.S. Congress committed more vile and corrupt acts than Bush ever did, and with seeming impunity.

The expansion of the shadow government and NWO global activities goes back much further than a mere 10-20 years — Lest we forget, it was FDR himself who empowered the United Nations, which for the last 65 years has campaigned for globalist initiatives, not the least of which is destroying U.S. sovereignty.

However, we're going way off topic here. Thanks to ATS for the time and effort in compiling the Top 10, which I'm sure will be an ongoing and evolving work.

Very cool list. From your post I take it there are 35 conspiracies that were mentioned. Any possibility of you posting a list of these?

I'm just curious as to what else was considered. To make it easier, just the list would suffice, no need to go into explanations, or vote totals, just the subject title would be intriguing.
Here you go.

Beautiful job!!
Wonderfully put together, eloquent, nicely stated with links.
Awesome!!

I’m a little confused by the perspective of #9, Organized Religion. The second paragraph seems unrepentantly anti-Roman Catholic, without any thought to the history of many figures in the history of Christianity, such as Francis of Assisi, who were reformers in their own right.

It also seems to suggest that these first Protestant followers of Christianity were somehow more in touch with the "original" vision of Jesus. (And not working out of the socio-economic tensions that emerged from a more consolidated middle class versus their feudal overlords.) Where would, for example, John Locke’s use of Protestant Christianity to justify the slave trade or Dutch Calvinism’s emphasis on the exploitation of third world country’s fit in with this original vision of Jesus?

I’m not arguing that “organized religion” (whatever that means) is not frequently discussed on these boards. But the way that this issue was written seems almost bizarre in its bias. Some basic questions to ask, I would think, would be what is religion, what does it mean for a religion to be organized, and how does this organization form in to a conspiracy?

That’s an interesting result. I think most of my suggestions are on there, even 2012. Amazed to see a majority of us are interested in it.

Interesting list…not what I’d hoped for but oh well 😔...2012 and NWO surprised me being so high up...

I have to disagree So as I was first introduced to the entire NWO scenario shortly before the first Bush took office back in the 90's.

The story has however evolved from what I was originally told which was that the "Blue Helemets" would take soldiers from all around the world to work in countries other than their birth Nation as that would create language barriers to aid in the UN Military orders to see entire communities and neighborhoods as insurgents.

Having watched this unfold since that time is probably the #2 reason I came to ATS and to further my knowledge of the obvious plan that seems only to change the wording not the plan.

Edit to add that the brilliant men I was in company with at that time were not new to the whole plan. I was honored to be trusted by some true Conspiracy Masters... Why? I do not know.

This list just proves that so many people still truly have no idea of what is really going on, to be honest some of the bigger conspiracies weren't even included in the voting and there were some pythetic ones there that were repeated two or three times (when they are part of a bigger one) and could have been left off the list.

It shows that more people are aware of 9/11 but still aren't aware of the reality that truly led to it. I'm thoroughly disapointed by this list..... and more so in the people that voted but haven't looked at everything ie. those that get on the 9-11 bandwagon and never question their other beliefs, thoughts and simply dismiss everything else as rubbish......

Again, that list is HIGHLY disaointing....

I'm just disappointed that it is in the top-ten because I still think that there is very little evidence to back it up compared to the other conspiracies.

This list was not made up of mods deciding what they thought was deserving to be a top 10 list, it was concluded from many members taking a poll. And this is what the results of that were. So obviously many here disagree with you.

I am not suprised by the list at all, and am glad to see that the UFO/ Alien subject is right up there. Thanks for showing the results so quickly, I have been waiting to see the top ten.

Stealth
Most people I know do not believe in a NWO. That is why I love this site.

I feel the same way, most people I talk to don't believe many subjects I come here for, so that is why ATS is a daily stop for me. I'm just glad the reptilian stuff didn't make the list...lol I was beginning to think I was in the minority for thinking it nuts!

I agree that the "Shadow Government" goes back further than the Reagan administration. I think it is the greatest conspiracy and here is why.

I prefer to call the group involved by the old school name of the MIC or Military Industrial Complex. They are not the same as the NWO. In fact I think they are separate and opposing forces. The MIC is a more right wing American philosophy at a national level, and the NWO is more left wing European philosophy at a global level. Each group have different agendas and objectives. But they are not the same.

I say this is a greater conspiracy because they are behind many of the other conspiracies on this list. For example: It is clear the MIC was behind the JFK assassination and I would say this same entity much evolved could have had a part in 9/11, but at least benefitted and conspired to mislead Americans into an unnecessary war in Iraq. Ultimately, the driving force with this group is money. It is not to control or rule over others, they prefer to let them govern themselves.

The NWO is a more multi-national entity concentrated on a one world government using more peaceful means like global warming to gain popularity. They do share some of the same people and backers involved and how they resolve this is beyond me. Here the motivator is less about money and more about control and power, but not necessarily enslavement of everyone as most people expect.

These two forces battle it out right in front of us every day pressing their agendas in the form of politics. That is why America is being divided between these two and who knows where it will lead.

Sweet dreams.

i got one that kind of refers to the nwo, tunneling and transport modes of the us government, in transport mode something carries something from one end point to another endpoint, in tunnel mode, a pvt network tunnel is carried securely from one endpoint to another endpoint over a public network. but for some reason both transport and tunnel modes seem to overlap each other, when network security is at stake why don’t they use some form of intrusion detection to locate encapsulated packets to decipher their data.

This must be a survey for a different site.

Reading through messages on various topics and seeing new threads come up, it looks more like Zionist Conspiracy is in position #1.

Mike

Each group have different agendas and objectives. But they are not the same.

I agree, I’ve always noticed one group has more of a fascist mentality, while the other is more subtle.

Very surprised that the JFK conspiracy was even mentioned really.

Chemtrails should have been top of the list as this is the very air that we breathe! Nothing more important than that, not aliens nor NWO.

Poisoned air by the military - on whose orders and for what purpose nobody knows. That is the big question. How much longer can people and animals breathe it in and life still be viable?

excellent list. I’m not sure I’d have the JFK assassination that high on the list though.

This thread is mostly fabricated lies. The Number one is irrefutably incorrect as there is in fact a conspiracy of such magnitude that it staggers the imagination of most people. The evidence available that is irrefutable and slam dunk with smoking guns that outnumber a gatlin gun on steroids is non-debatable. The conspiracy of a global government is almost complete after the next orchestrated 911. When it happens and it will, the CIA has set up a crime wave that will use MS-13 gang members nationwide to launch attacks. The KKK, militia and African American muslims will clash and using the principles of the Helgelian Dialectic will predictably cause the average American in the middle to accept the martial law that has been planned since FDR and other presidents who have sold their soul to the Illuminati. By their own words they are sold us out to the Illuminati.

The Mexicans are deploying up to 350,000 well armed and trained troops along the border of Texas, AZ, NM, and Calif to launch an assault against the US followed by units of the Chinese and Russian Military also in Mexico. Well over 1,000,000 UN troops and a large number of Russian and Eastern European troops are training living and operating inside the US and will be called into action when all of this hits. Many special Russian forces are sleepers inside the US as cab drivers, limo drivers, waiters, cooks, etc....until called. Russians are located in Canada, Alaska, Cuba, South America for starters. A civil war orchestrated by our own government and the European Illuminati covered by the Scottish rite masonry and the Vatican.......will take place making the UN the power. The North American Union, South American Union, Asian Union and seven other Unions will all be formed by 2010. It is a fact that this is going on. They even have over 3,000 concentration camps built by Haliburton nationwide that are empty now but will be filled by Americans that go against the New World Order............bad times are coming that has never been seen before.

The Chinese have already pretty much bought out our country and will send in troops to protect those areas they have purchased.

The Chemtrails are allowed by the government as accomplished by UN aid. The chemicals are used for different purposes one of which will be used to spread a deadly virus. Others are to weaken the Immune system and in the process creates breathing difficulty, miscarriages, heart attacks and high blood pressure...as well as seizures for those with specific pre-existing conditions. Its in line with Kissinger's Depopulation plan of NSSM 200. the trails consist of but not limited to Aluminum Oxide, causing "rainbow" like colors in the coulds but they are rainbows, and Barium Oxide and Barium Chloride. Since the 1990's they have been killing off the honey bees. The bees account for 80% of our food supply by pollinating natural grown food. So, with the death of the honey bees they will control our food supply, called Food Genocide. Rockefeller, Rothschilds, Astor, Onassas, Russell, Reynolds, Van Something or other, LIT, and a total of 13 Illuminati families, which hides under the guise of Freemasonry.
The problem I had with the choices and the list is the redundancies. But these are some good ones, on my mind no doubt. And quit complaining about #7, it happens to be very interesting to me. You can take it off the list in 4 years.

The conspiracy of a global government is almost complete after the next orchestrated 911. When it happens and it will, the CIA has set up a crime wave that will use MS-13 gang members nationwide to launch attacks. The KKK, militia and African American muslims will clash and using the principles of the Hegelian Dialectic will predictably cause the average American in the middle to accept the martial law that has been planned since FDR and other presidents who have sold their soul to the Illuminati. By their own words they are sold us out to the Illuminati.

The Mexicans are deploying up to 350,000 well armed and trained troops along the border of Texas, AZ, NM, and Calif to launch an assault against the US followed by units of the Chinese and Russian Military also in Mexico. Well over 1,000,000 UN troops and a large number of Russian and Eastern European troops are training living and operating inside the US and will be called into action when all of this hits. Many special Russian forces are sleepers inside the US as cab drivers, limo drivers, waiters, cooks, etc...until called. Russians are located in Canada, Alaska, Cuba, South America for starters. A civil war orchestrated by our own government and the European Illuminati covered by the Scottish rite masonry and the Vatican......will take place making the UN the power. The North American Union, South American Union, Asian Union and seven other Unions will all be formed by 2010. It is a fact that this is going on. They even have over 3,000 concentration camps built by Haliburton nationwide that are empty now but will be filled by Americans that go against the New World Order..........bad times are coming that has never been seen before.

The Chinese have already pretty much bought our country and will send in troops to protect those areas they have purchased.

That's a pretty hefty case load. Now I don't doubt what you are saying, but this needs more profile than a commentary on the ATS choices, which I agree is what they want to present as the top issues. JFK...

Just an FYI, I don't really get into the UFO stuff, but I was stationed at RAF Bentwaters/Woodbridge (the UFO issues there) from 1983-1985 courtesy of the USAF. There is something out there. Or so I have heard.

Obama birth certificate conspiracy should be number one. 😊
Love the list.

Fascinating to me that the NWO agenda is, in itself, and agenda extended far beyond our planet.

Would the pyramid of power so easily disappear beyond our earthly borders?

Bigger thinking. Perhaps some could be consolidated. Nonetheless...

Interesting indeed.

Thank you for putting the time and effort into this. It's enticing to see where peoples priorities are.

Wow!

After reading the top ten my back is tingling all over Estupendo! is the only word I can use to describe this particular thread.

All I say for those that have reservations about 2012 research research research.

Thanks for an extremely enjoyable well written read ATS

Near enough. I'd still place 9/11 above NWO, because it would probably be the one thing that could undo it.

Other than that, great list!

I still think a Flow-Chart would do much better, seeing as so many conspiracies tie into each other.

These are all very good pic's, and in my opinion they are interwoven, for the agenda for first choice, we need to set up a discussion board, to try and second guess the fiend's of the so called order. who by the way play god and ruler of the planet day after day, the only way it will stop is info, why do you think Rockefeller wants to ban the internet, please I implore all of you to partake in hounding your senator or congress rep's, whenever a bill concerning taking all are internet liberty's away, lately they have been hiding items, along with pedophile issues, so make sure you read between the lines.

i'm in agreement with some people about #7, 2012. a conspiracy involves cover-up. i have seen none of that from any one person, institution, government or other entity regarding 2012. but as our fearless leaders say it's what has BEEN DISCUSSED AS A CONSPIRECY that counts in this poll. methinks there is alot of money to be made in the near future surrounding 2012, and that is the main driving force.

[edit on 26-3-2009 by jimmyx]
A great idea to have members vote the top 10 and fascinating results.

I do agree with many here who have commented that #7 is the odd man out; 2012 is speculation about a purported cosmic event and not a CT controlled by humans. To my mind, it ranks down there with Atlantis and Lemuria.

I’d much rather see global warming in that spot, because there you have a real debate about the reality of the issue and the agendas of its proponents.

I was also glad to see the JFK assassination still so prominent, as this event is IMO the defining moment that set the US on its present course— it is the conspiracy that enabled all the others that followed and thus is crucially important to understanding our present situation.

The 9/11 Attacks should not be on that list.....neither the US shadow government.....because they are too NATIONAL.....

Are the conflicts in Somalia Darfur and Pakistan and Afghanistan not an act of organised religion too, the West knows its own demons and once the rest of the world wakes up to their own then maybe people have a say without being persecuted?

I think 9/11 is too far down the list, maybe on ATS it’s a big issue or its just a recent that is why its seen as important as some of the major issues.

I don’t agree with most of them, but hurray anyway.

That’s great. Almost exactly my top three, my input #1 ET & UFO cover up, #2 NWO, #3 9/11. I listed in that order because I feel they are all tied together in that order. Connections......

Wouldn’t that fall under Shadow Government or NWO?

Of course it’s difficult to say because it may simply not be a conspiracy at all, only perceived as one by those who aren't convinced with the information that has already been presented.

I feel it falls under the same category as Bush's 2000 Presidential appointment by the U.S. Supreme Court. While some believe everything was done appropriately, there are those who are not convinced by the information that was presented.

Which ever is the case there, it would still be difficult to prove not only that there is a conspiracy, but that it is in fact tied to one specific secret organization (Shadow Gov't / NWO).

wow, the number one thing that didn't even get on a list were did man come from, i would have thought all them others stem from how we even got on this rock...

oh well 😔

Above top secret web site just conducted a survey to find out what most of its viewers considered the #1 conspiracy. Not to my surprise the New World Order was the major vote getter.

Well I thought the New World Order was #1 with the Global Economic collapse being just the most current tactical move to bring it about. I have long felt PNAC, Illuminati, Bilderbergers, Trilateral Commission, et.al., all being agents through which these folks filter their efforts down to people and organizations that carry out the tactics. I believe this effort goes back at least 100 years and the document called "Protocols" being a rough blue print. Tactics included gaining control of the global economic order, the global media, the global religious organizations, and the leading global political organizations. I think it took all of these factors to create the global environment that we have today that is ripe for the final coup d'etat or the fait accompli.

9/11 was just a tactic to help gain unprecedented extra constitutional powers in a unitary executive and to build the use of private armies while draining the American economy and breaking down potential Islamic resistance.

The recent spate of scandals and sexual indiscretions of leading political and religious leaders was a tactic prescribed in the "Protocols" as a way of gaining control over key people through either extortion or expose that would discredit those who did not comply. It also served another tactic of the "Protocols" to cynically discredit all leaders to further the tactic of increasing a global nihilism. All of this to eliminate or reduce the influence of all organized groups that might serve to rally people against these overlords from gaining complete control.

Kennedy may have been just one of the more noted victims of these Military-Industrial-Political overlords who cut short any effort by Kennedy to extract the U.S. from Vietnam.

What is seldom noted is that while conflicts like Vietnam and Iraq are very costly in blood, treasury, and moral to our nation, it is very profitable for those who are involved in international banking, oil, and arms; the very same folks behind the New World Order. It has been a tremendous transference of wealth from people and nations into the hands of a small number.

The real kicker is that this may have a timeline related to 2012. You see, people had to be humbled first, i.e., the global economic meltdown that includes housing value collapses, savings and pensions brought to ruin, and the loss of health security. Many sense something of epic and cosmological proportions is about to happen. There is a haunting thought that maybe there is an apocalypse coming. The Bible tells Christians that there is, Muslims are told that there is, Zecharia Sitchin, a Hebrew and Ancient civilizations scholar says that there is. The "Protocols" says that they will introduce a "Messiah" when the time is sufficiently dire for the people to be willing to accept almost anyone that promises to bring peace and cessation of the pain. David Allen Rivera documents this plan from the 1770's to Today and takes us through how the American Federal Reserve was used to help bring this global collapse to fulfillment. The nexus between these New World Order types and 2012 is that they have ties to mach occult ancient knowledge that tells them that cosmic events will occur then, that will help pursued the doubters that whatever is happening is the will of the gods.

So you see, most of these conspiracies are related. The unknown is if this has any connection to aliens. If Sitchin is correct, these alien gods just may be using us for their own amusement, much as we might manipulate icons in a computer game.

I think that is my point here., it seems that most of the poeple focus on the small points.

Why are we here and who made us should be always number one, for is that not the reason we ask every single question on ats??

In some ways it seems we focus on the "small" tidbits then only to forget the bigger main question the numero uno question..

why? and for what reason?

That would have been my top question, always has been always will be i guess. You cant have the rest without that fundermental question that burns inside each and every person on this planet.. all the rest seem to be the minipulation of man, but not the reason for it?
Hi there. I love this post, it really shows the top interests from the true conspiratour.

Now, i would like to add my thoughts on all this...Is it only me that belives many of these theories really are connected, and is done for our best interest...not against us, like many people like to belive.

New world Order = enslaving the people?
I dont belive that...too many people would crack under their own consciousness, knowing they childrens children would live in a 1984 society in the future.

Chemtrails = making us sick, depopulate the world? I dont think so...wouldnt that force even those behind the scenes to breathe in the toxins? even royalties?

The list goes on and on...but here is my thought:

What if the Alien Agenda really is real? This would make it to the most important agenda ever in human history, and give us the true answer that we are not alone...but then again, add the idea that these beings are to some degree evil, from a humans perspetive. abducting, mutulate...and even capture humans to never return them to earth...
I mean...if the higher officials that work on this, ever gonna disclosure the aliens precens on earth, they had to answer why people being abducted, tested and so on and on...too

I think making a one world government...put all states, and countries under one would be the right thing to do in such scenario. One global currency...that would not collapse when they at last reavele the truths behinds it all...we are not alone, we are under surveillance, and that we may see an alien invasion sometime in the future...
For us as the human race on this earth could never fight against such an invasion without standing together. But that we atleast have a better chance to fight them, if we stand together.

Bilderbergers making plan to enslave the mainstreet...just for their own interests...not a chance! But making a group of high inllectuals, top economic leaders, leaders of countries to get together, military top officials and so on...to discuss the alien agenda in private, and to make a plan for how we as a humanity and one can deal with maybe an aggresive alien race, and maybe a possible invasion...

I just mean.....put the Alien Agenda in all of these theories...and it kinda fits...atleast for me.

I am not english or good with words, so i may have spelled words wrong and so on...But i hope you get the line😊

hey norm, i dont have a problem with the NWO as such i mean logicially its evolution of humans to have one world goverment and one world system.. people freak out alot about it but i laugh alot and point to ants who are more or less smarter than humans..

Team players ect, now then look at aliens or how or who made us.. that brings up all sorts of crazy questions, myself i think aliens are real not because i watched some youtube vid or have been abducted but i look at the glory of nature and the heavens above me.. i know for sure somthing in the vastness we call home there are other beings just as smart and smarter but just as lost lol!! lost in a very small space.

That's the question I think I like to ask, why do we even question it? Why is life the way it is?

There is a reason for it all and I don't know for 100% what it is, but I do know this, we are here and that puts it over 60% for me and mathematically that = 1 alien is real just as you and me. Agenda "don't know" government endorsed "don't think so" puppet masters "very definitely" aliens chatting fighting our "illuminati masters" Yea

The government is not the same as the people who run our planet..

That is the confusion many make.. The NWO is for humans to stop ripping each other a new asshole imo..

And the alien agenda well.. I'm not an alien but I hope the muppets running the show don't sell us out to some "other" life form but then again we are a fickle bunch aint we.. /me rolls eyes

*Their children's children they believe will be taken care of and the rest will be slaves unable to reproduce as the cervical cancer vaccination is an experimental sterilization vaccination masked under the hoax that it will fight cervical cancer. NOT EVEN CLOSE. It has already killed 11 girls since 2007 and 2008...the WHO lies and are covering up a deadly agenda.

*The chemtrails are being spread in major populated areas to include Chicago, Dallas, Atlanta, and many others to set up the flu pandemic and for other reasons due to the mix... It is a fact that Kissinger and Haig's plan NSSM 200 is the actual plan unclassified and the classified version. They are going to kill millions soon...FACT........google the actual NSSM 200. They have it all worked out........

I went public in 2005, google Thomas Gambill + Kosovo and you will see about Kosovo. The UN is the evil organization on a high level......but those below have no idea.......not a clue of their evil agenda and their agenda is well documented and the existence of the Unified conspiracy is 100% irrefutable............

9/11 was my top choice. This is because I believe it brings all world borders to an end with no end or as a comparison a war that has no end. UFO cover ups were my second and NWO the 3rd. I chose NWO 3rd for one reason only, these architects control the info that unravels the mystery surrounding my first 2 choices.

This is a tad off topic but I have to mention the Infowar commercial running on my local radio station for efoodseeds? or something like that and it talks about people who believe the official 9/11 story don't need food...I only heard it once and that was late at night I wish infowars could play it through the day 😊 It’s a funny sad commercial but more funny than sad, the unbelievers must be robots😊

This turned out much more enlightening than I expected. I think the interconnections are fascinating.

For those unsure about #7, don’t forget the conspiracy about underground bunkers and all, presumably for the safety of the elite during the 2012 “event” and the issue of “camps” for the internment of masses of citizens in the chaos of the “event”. It all fits together.

Not suprised by any of them actually. The New World Order is at least 40 years old maybe even longer(no pun intended!). I find it interesting to find sites about it predicting the police state as far back as the Carter years. All of them say its close now. A few more years. Well 40 years and counting so far. Interesting nonetheless.

THE NEW WORLD ORDER

Whether it is attainable, how it can be attained, and what sort of world a world at peace will have to be.

First Published . . January 1940.

THE END OF AN AGE

IN THIS SMALL BOOK I want to set down as compactly, clearly and usefully as possible the gist of what I have learnt about war and peace in the course of my life. I am not going to write peace propaganda here. I am going to strip down certain general ideas and realities of primary importance to their framework, and so prepare a nucleus of useful knowledge for those who have to go on with this business of making a world peace. I am not going to persuade people to say “Yes, yes” for a world peace; already we have had far too much abolition of war by making declarations and signing resolutions; everybody wants peace or pretends to want peace, and there is no need to add even a sentence more to the vast volume of such ineffective stuff. I am simply attempting to state the things we must do and the price we must pay for world peace if we really intend to achieve it.

the evidence is overwhelming when put together.......three failed but planned military coup of the US government by the US government in 1933, 1960-1963 and third, 1972-1974.....

fact that Mexico declared martial law several weeks ago and reported once on fox news but taken off the air and not reported since.......check this out.....

they are in total control of the process. they have in fact started two world wars as planned; accomplished all the wars from 1900 to 1933 that General Butler wrote the "War is a Racket" about........they have assassinated every president or controlled every president we have ever had since Washington to Obama. Obama is completely controlled to read the prompter and sign the orders that BUSH, Clinton And Bush Jr has implemented....every single one. We have faked the war on terror, to justify the disingration of the Constitution which has now been complete. They planned 911 to justify the necessary Acts making the world believe we are fighting Islamic terrorist and Bin Laden is part of the planning when the CIA, Mossad and M15 and 6 + are the planners and orchestrators of the 911 phase. They have planned and caused every single depression, recession and inflationary period to create wealth and panic, and create wars as a result......to foment their plan for world control phase by phase and step by step perfectly. Some mistakes and miscalculations were made but they recovered, and either blackmailed, murdered, assassinated, threatened, killed a relative, demonized a leader, bribed a congressman or murdered a congressman to get the job done. Presently there are in fact over 350,000 Mexican soldiers who are well armed and equipped to start joint operations in the US working with Chinese and Russian troops in Mexico, confirmed by reliable sources that I have and few will ever know about......UN troops in the US, concentration camps in the US, trains to take people there, Russians in Cuba, South America, Canadian border, and Alaska. Sleepers are in the US as we speak. Now, they WILL shut down the Internet, close the banks, crash the dollar and spread a disease pandemic that will dwarf the flu pandemics in history.
Look at a nuclear or neutron bomb going off in one or more cities and all this will take place fast.....the CIA is working with MS-13 and LGF crime gang members NATIONWIDE to start a crime wave in over 3,500 cities.....good cops will be disarmed and the felons being released in the prisons under the lie of overcrowding will make way for empty cells for those hard core Christian underground and coalition forces that are on the side of the constitution and against the New World Order. The Obama Civilian security force will consist of felons released from the prisons, armed and they have in FACT been indoctrinated into a program called the "Christian Identify" which is designed to indoctrinate them into the New Age Movement which is a cover term for a remade form of Nazism. You can actually compare tenant for tenant on a matrix nazism vs New Age Movement and the are the same just the words and terms are masked.......They use felons for loyal security forces in both Nazism and the NEW AGE MOVEMENT to be used by the New World Order.................google all of this in any form and you will see that it will be verified. the planners in fact worship Lucifer in ritual and dedicate their newborn infants to the service of Lucifer/Satan...........that is the common thread.

"Somewhere in the remote past I remember reading a claim that George Washington was actually Weishaupt. Maddeningly, Madoff looks just like Washington. Not my imagination."

100% pure bunk. The facts are irrefutable and unchallenged except by Masons and Illuminati agenteurs. George Washington was a Mason that didn't learn about this until He was sent a copy of the "Proofs of a Conspiracy" by John Robison and sent by Rev. Snyder. Adam Weishaupt turned Thomas Jefferson around to protect him from prosecution. Now, unless George Washington wrote Thomas Jefferson in personal letters blasting him for protecting Adam Weishaupt, who this false claim mentions was also George Washington, history didn't say the Washington had a split personality.....lol..... Go back and do better research. I have researched this extensively and can give you word for word his specific memoirs...dates and years. John Adams and George Washington were aghast as Jefferson's turn to help the Illuminati survive. The Continental masons were not aware as the masons of today; of the Masons, Scottish Rite, 33rd degree and higher are involved with this Luciferian agenda. By they way, Robert Shueller, Billy Graham and even the Pope are 33rd + degree masons....imagine that.

"I'm thankful the Rothschilds et al at least allowed us to have nearly two and a half centuries with the illusion we had some choices in our affairs before clamping down."

you better go back to the drawing board.

"The Old World Order was fun while it lasted. "

Don't even try to divert this one.....the Illuminati joined the Masons in July 1782 at the congress of Wihembsbad. They, the Knight Templar and many other sister organizations are still there. In fact, they have a plan to destroy the Catholic Church with a grand announcement and soon. It will be a LIE!!!!!!!!

Bush, another Luciferian, and whose father, Prescott, was one of the puppets that helped to fund Hitler in 1928, fact.....along with Duponts, Rockefellers...and Rothschilds......
Kissinger the liar and Luciferian........new world order. The Zionist in power now are not even real Jews by bloodline. They are Eastern Europeans without a country until 700 AD they switched to Judism. the Real jews will take over when the time is right. The Zionist movment of 1897 was formed to set the wheels of war in motion.

Alex Jones, Ron Paul, Naomi Wolf [Rhodes Scholar should give you a hint], Michael Moore work for the Illuminati by being part of a fifth column strategy.....

Clinton, [Rhodes Scholar, imagine that], and another traitor as was FDR....

Gordon Brown......lol..>

March 4, 1939 - Quote from a report of the secret committee by President Roosevelt; FDR himself.....a masons and puppet of the Illuminati

"I am making no concessions to business, or for relief. I have a military machine sufficient to stop any organized revolt. I am putting MY PEOPLE ahead of all instruments. I'll have had a full understanding with Chamberlain, and we will destroy this unemployed condition with a WAR, and a WAR only. To Hell with the American people, as far as a Democracy is concerned. It does not exist. It never did, and we will never let it happen that way. I am going to crush business, infest America with all the aliens possible, and in the last analysis, declare Martial Law, and confiscate everything I need for a true and forceful Dictatorship. My New Deal is a failure, and I know it, but no one else will tell me that I must discontinue my present activities, and program."

From the Secret Audience with the Military Appropriation Committee;
The Ways and Means Committee;
The Special War Finance Committee;

This copy was presented to me by mail through Senator Lundeen." “The Red Fog Over America” by William Guy Carr, 1955.

In 1841 Clinton Roosevelt published in America “The Science of Government Founded on Natural Laws”, This was nothing more than a plagiarized version of the teachings of Professor Adam Weishaupt of Frankfort University, Germany, the renegade Jesuit priest who arranged for the agenteur of the Illuminati to infiltrate into French Freemasonry in 1776 so “The Secret Power” which directed the World Revolutionary Movement, and the Conspiracy of Satan, at that time could use Freemasonry to further their secret plans and ambitious and at the same time cloak their diabolitical purpose.

The fact that FDR’s New Deal, his NRA, and other political policies and economic devices fitted perfectly into the “Long Range Plans”, of the Illuminati proved the continuity of the conspiracy from 1841 to 1945. It has been explained that Roosevelt made known his secret plans to establish a dictatorship in American in March 1939 when he gave a secret audience to some of his governments special committee. It has also been mentioned that Roosevelt was kept a virtual prisoner from after Yalta until his death presumably to prevent him telling the truth in the event his conscience troubled him when he realized that he was about to meet his maker.
NO problem, these posts are exactly with the current thread as they are details of the "conspiracy theories". In fact it is a one conspiracy and is referred to as a unified conspiracy. Its is not separate from the others as all of them are just parts of the one major endgame. this is the exact point I'm trying to get across..............

Nice compilation.

Although I wouldn't change a one, i guess i'd have liked to see something in the list about Paul being dead- mainly due to the many years and ways people have considered and argued the "McCartney, alive or dead" conspiracy.

Hi ZeroGhost,

Great thought! How do we put this information to the best use. This forum has some extremely intelligent people that should be able to connect some dots and make suggestions for a plan. I agree we have to avoid the consumer mindset and change our personal actions and thoughts if we are ever going to advance beyond this point. We are at a tipping point, will we move forward consciously, or blow ourselves backwards with technology we are not collectively ready for?!?

Post your ideas of how to use this list and our collective opinions to make a significant change!

These results indicate something of a consensus. A lot of people find the data that relates to what is usually called "NWO" extensive and verified enough for it to be seen as a very real threat to human liberty and human survival.

It is time, at this level of discussion, to start considering how that which seems inevitable might yet be averted.

Part of what might be necessary to move forward in this direction is to let some people and ideas into the group that have been, in the past, largely shunned. I am one such person.

This same basic "NWO" phenomenon was fingered in a talk recorded by L. Ron Hubbard in 1967. I did not hear that recording until 1981. It is called "Ron's Journal 67” and it is available. His people have been working on this problem (among other things) since that time. I should know; I was a member of his group for 26 years.

By 1967 LRH had already developed data on such diverse subjects as alien interventions, Atlantis, the past occupants of Mars and other pieces of the puzzle. He started releasing his findings around 1952, with most findings solidly verified (in his mind, anyway) by the mid-1960's. I see his followers as allies, if not leaders, in the fight to regain (or maybe really gain for the first time in a long time) our freedoms and the chance to build a future that could possibly be happier than past “futures” have been. Yet these people are habitually reviled on the internet over incidents that are probably mostly untrue.

We could spin like tops until the end of time about the fact that a whole planet is somehow allowing a little band of criminals to run amok right in front of our faces. (I should mention that both Hal9000 and sojourn have a better-than-usual appreciation for what's going on.) But I think you deserve a briefing on what the Scientologists and their friends are doing about it. I am not, by the way, telling you anything that is a secret.

The plan centers around the deployment of LRH technologies that empower individuals. They range from what could be called “remedial” technologies that combat illiteracy, drug abuse, criminality, and moral degradation up to various mental and spiritual technologies that improve a person's ability to survive. They also reach up into technologies that help groups to survive.

Concurrently, there is an admittedly vicious campaign being run against a group that has a consistent record of playing into the hands of the NWO and forwarding its goals - psychiatry. The goal here is to de-fund them.

LRH’s group, via the Church of Scientology, is coordinating these efforts. Again, this is not a secret. They are also very aware, especially their leadership, of the stakes involved for Mankind.

They are pushing very hard on church members for the funding and other support needed to move these actions forward. This includes vigorous attempts to increase the membership.

A small armada of posters on the internet have managed to turn these efforts into just another attack on an already over-attacked population. Thus most church members do not bother to post their thoughts and opinions on the web. I am one of the exceptions.

I can only hope that, barring the availability of convincing and reliable data (which is extremely difficult to come by on the internet, or anywhere for that matter) that those who are interested in the cause of "denying ignorance" re-assess which people are on which side of these issues.

It is not easy to stand for the truth when it is so difficult to be certain what the truth is. I believe in giving those who are at least trying the benefit of the doubt.

Kudos for making the post and defending LRH and Scientology. I am not familiar with the 'real' aspects of scientology, and I am a victim of the over-hyped negative image. I have read most of Dianetics, and I have always been intrigued by Mr. Hubbards incites.

If this is a group organized against the NWO, MSM, etc., then I agree that we could benefit by knowing more about their efforts, and help them, or tailor our own efforts to be beneficial.

Please share more if you can. Possibly start another thread for discussion of it!
The New World Order in the US started exactly on May 1, 1776 by Adam Weishaupt retained by the Rothschilds to write it up.....true story. The original plans go back to the Old Testament and masons after Nimrod.

Very good list 😊

I do Question having the year 2012 on the list.
It is a bench mark made by a society that collapsed and their calendar just stopped on that date.

love this list, order is right..

just dont understand why worl press dont speek abaut this, half of thi thins can be explain and there is loot of evidence for every of this suject, example, ufos r seen and taped every day, photos..
if just one is not fake that mean they exist and they r here, and one photo or video is real i m shure.

press play stupid all the time. why is that?
Okay, what does it mean?

In the most simple terms, we encourage people to share what they discover here on our websites, as long as they give us proper credit, and don't share entire posts on for-profit websites or other publications. You can include an entire post on another open-access public website, as long as you give the author credit, give AboveTopSecret.com credit, and link back to the URL of the discussion thread post. Linking back to the thread helps people discover the context of the discussion, especially if the content is current and evolving.
If you want to share our material on a for-profit website (one with advertising), you'll need to use a small snippet (not the entire post), and link back to the specific discussion thread post.

If you want to use entire posts or threads within a for-profit website, book, video, or other offline product, please contact The Above Network, LLC for more information on how to arrange proper rights.
